

Clarence Nichols

Clarence Nichols was born in Fort Jennings, Ohio to Joseph and Sarah Nichols January 21,1893. He enlisted in the Army, April 25, 1918. He served in Company G 330 Infantry as a Private. From June 1918 to March 1919 he was with Expeditionary Forces. These forces were stationed in France on what was known as the Western Front. He married Gladys Brown of Mercer County Ohio. He died December 15, 1964 and is buried at Swamp College Cemetery.